

Become a Training Partner

Check out these ten items to become a PW Training Partner.

1. Tell us more about your vision for business development and your organization's core mission.

2. Connect with our local team to share more on the areas and projects you are currently developing.

3. Define the scope and geographical locations where you want to expand and execute your business development initiatives.

4. Agree on terms of the partnership.

5. Sign a Global/National training partners agreement.

6. Select candidates in your team to join our "Train the Trainers" session.

7. Build an implementation plan to disseminate and develop business training programs.

8. Collect metrics, testimonies, and insights on this program.

9. Report to PW on your successes, areas of learning, and opportunities of growth.

10. Renew annually your agreement to stay connected and receive the most updated tools for your business development programs.